

Shawn Bracke – Dance

Shawn Bracke is a versatile Choreographer, Dancer and Visual Artist, creating movements for stage, film and television. His work is story-based and aims to inspire audiences to think critically and feel deeply.

His aesthetic stems from his strong technical training and a professional career that's immersed in the commercial and concert dance worlds. His extensive training in Contemporary, Ballet, Jazz, Tap, Hip-hop and Vernacular styles have been integral to his unique movement. Shawn draws from experience with improvisational acting techniques to create a heightened emotional state with his work.

Having spent time living in Vancouver, London UK, Milan and now in Toronto, Canada. Shawn has gained credits working with major brands. Selected credits include: Much Music MMVA's, YTV the Zone, The Next Step (associate chor.), We Day, BBC television, Toronto Short Film Festival, Converse, Bud Light Sensation, ACT Toronto, Freeform Network. His work as a Choreographer in Dance On Film projects have been selected in over 12 International Film Festivals including the Oscar qualifying HollyShorts Film Festival.

When not Performing or Working as a Choreographer, Shawn is a sought after instructor. A faculty member at The Underground Dance Centre in Toronto and a curator of online initiatives that connect aspiring dancers with prominent agencies, directors and choreographers across Canada, he has taught at over 250 locations in Canada, the US, the UK, France and Italy. As an adjudicator, he has critiqued over 20K routines nationally.
